Guide to Downloading eAudiobooks

With NetLibrary you can download eAudiobooks straight to your PC or MP3 player without setting foot in the library. There are over 500 titles online and bestsellers are being added constantly.

Getting Started

- Get your PIN number from your local library and login to your account at www.wicklow.ie
- Open "Subscribed Resources" and "NetLibrary"
- Create a free account using the link at the top right of the screen and choose a username and password
- Browse or search titles using the links on the right
- To check out a title, click on the book and follow the instructions to download and save
- All books will play on your computer's media player (eg VLC, Windows, etc.) or your portable device
